WOVEN IKAT ORIGINAL

SGWFABIKTO
$472.00

A characterful design that draws together the full palette of the collection, pulling out and harmonising its key colours within one richly layered pattern.

Expertly woven from a blend of cotton, viscose and flax, the fabric has a beautifully tactile handle with natural texture and depth. The interplay of fibres gives it substance and softness in equal measure, making it well suited to upholstery, cushions and considered decorative accents.

While the motif makes a confident statement, once in situ the rhythm of the repeat creates a surprisingly gentle overall effect, settling comfortably into both contemporary and more traditional interiors.

All the fabrics in our wovens collection are made in the UK, to the OEKO-TEX STeP standard which certifies the manufacturing process for environmentally friendly and socially responsible production facilities.
